“Speed kills itself. We bet the horses built to survive the duel — or the stalkers waiting to inherit the carnage.”

How We Got Here

This morning we loaded structured past-performance data from Brisnet across 10 tracks. We pulled morning-line odds from The Racing API and supplemented Santa Anita with live TVG odds. Every horse's career speed figures, running styles, trainer statistics, jockey assignments, and trip history were parsed into our database.

The Scope	Detail
Tracks purchased	12 ($18 in data costs)
Horses loaded	680 with full past performances
Passed Phase 1	63 races
Strategies applied	All active strategies, every horse, every qualifying race
Flagged for vulnerable faves	12 races
Plays built	16 across 3 tracks

How Vulnerability Assessment Works

Every race, we ask: is the favorite in a position to get beaten?

The data: each horse has a running style tag from Brisnet (E = speed/front-runner, E/P = presser, P = stalker, S = closer). This tells us how each horse typically races.

The code: we count all E-tagged horses in the field. That gives us the pace map — how many horses want the lead.

The logic:

If the fave is E or E/P (wants to be near the front) AND there are 2 or more other E horses contesting the lead → the fave gets cooked in a pace duel. Tagged VULNERABLE.

If the fave is P or S (comes from behind) → the pace duel actually helps them. They sit back while speed kills each other. Tagged PROTECTED.

What we do with it:

VULNERABLE fave → we bet AGAINST them. Our win pick benefits from the pace meltdown. Double the stake ($100).

PROTECTED fave → we still bet FOR our ceiling leader if signals fire (La Cosa Nostra), but at standard stake ($50). The fave might win too — we're not doubling down.

The Commission's Picks

TODAY'S THEME — SPEED KILLS ITSELF

12 of 16 plays feature pace pressure as the primary thesis — multiple speed types cooking each other up front, creating value for our win picks who can either survive the duel (best-ceiling E/E-P drawn outside) or inherit the carnage (stalkers with massive ceiling gaps).

The big numbers: 4 vulnerable favorites doubled ($400 in win bets). 5 five-horse expanded boxes catching deeper exotics. 7 picks at 10/1 or higher across all three products.

Conviction plays: Picks 3, 6, 7 (Commission) plus SA R9 (Poor Connection 15/1 in a G3, 109 ceiling controlling the tempo from the front).

Pick 1 • Laurel • Race 3

Allowance Optional Claiming $32K • 5½ Furlongs • Turf • 8 horses

BUSHIDO (PP3) • 7/2 • Ceiling 105 • DOUBLE $100

Strategies Firing

La Cosa Nostra: Ceiling leader (105 Beyer) at 7/2 with S6 (best last Beyer).

Beat the Vulnerable Favorite: Big Tankness (E/P, 9/5) faces 2 pure E horses + 4 E/P pressers.

Beyer Ceiling Box: Top 4 ceilings at 100–105, all at value prices.

Pace scenario: Two pure speed horses (Bushido PP3, Talented Man PP1) plus four E/P pressers converge on the lead. Big Tankness (the 9/5 fave) is E/P trying to press from post 4 — swallowed by traffic on both sides.

Favorite: Big Tankness (E/P, 9/5, Beyer 101) — VULNERABLE. E/P type in a race with 2 pure speed + 4 other pressers. Six horses wanting forward position in 5½ furlongs — she gets cooked.

The pick: BUSHIDO (PP3, 7/2, Beyer 105). He IS one of the speed horses — but he has the highest ceiling in the field by 4 points and ran a 101 last out. In this field the question isn't whether the pace is hot, it's which speed horse has enough class to survive it. Bushido's 105 says he can fire hard AND hold.

Stake: $100 WIN (DOUBLED — vulnerable fave) • Ceiling Box: Bushido (105, PP3), Talented Man (103, PP1), Big Tankness (101, PP4), Cactus (100, PP2)

MOMENTUM FILES (PP1) • 6/1 • Ceiling 99 • DOUBLE $100

Strategies Firing

La Cosa Nostra: Ceiling leader (99 Beyer) at 6/1 with S6.

Beat the Vulnerable Favorite: Moment's Notice (E/P, 5/2) faces 3 pure E horses.

Beyer Ceiling Box: 99, 96, 94, 91 ceilings in a $40K claimer.

Pace scenario: Three pure speed horses (Momentum Files PP1, Good Willie PP2, another E) fight for the lead. Moment's Notice (E/P fave from PP6) wants to press but 3 E horses inside her force her wide or trap her in traffic.

Favorite: Moment's Notice (E/P, 5/2, Beyer 91) — VULNERABLE. E/P type with 3 speed horses contesting ahead of her. She'll be caught in traffic trying to find position; her 91 ceiling is also 8 points below our pick.

The pick: MOMENTUM FILES (PP1, 6/1, Beyer 99). Speed horse on the rail in a pace duel — normally a problem. But his 99 ceiling is 8 points above the fave and the highest in the field. He can fire hard from the inside, potentially clear the other speed, and hold. At 6/1 the public doesn't respect his ceiling. Elliott rides.

Stake: $100 WIN (DOUBLED — vulnerable fave) · Ceiling Box: Momentum Files (99, PP1), Salming (96, PP5), Toga D'Oro (94, PP4), Moment's Notice (91, PP6)

HONG KONG PHOOEY (PP3) · 15/1 · Ceiling 97 · DOUBLE $100

Strategies Firing

La Cosa Nostra: 97 ceiling at 15/1, massive value.

Beat the Vulnerable Favorite: Hard Circle (E, 3/1) in a pace duel.

Beyer Ceiling Box: 11-horse field; the fave IS the ceiling leader but vulnerable.

Pace scenario: Hard Circle (E fave, PP7) and Take A Stance (E, PP2) contest the lead, plus 5 E/P pressers adding pressure. HOT pace in a mile turf race — closers and mid-pack types inherit.

Favorite: Hard Circle (E, 3/1, Beyer 101) — VULNERABLE. The fastest horse on paper but pure speed in a pace duel. His 101 ceiling means he'll fire hard and likely fade in the stretch. He stays in the box (Keep Fave in Exotics) — even fading, he'll likely hold for 2nd or 3rd.

The pick: HONG KONG PHOOEY (PP3, 15/1, Beyer 97). E/P type who can sit just off the speed duel, save energy, and kick past tired horses in the stretch. 97 ceiling at 15/1 is absurd value. The public is sleeping.

Stake: $100 WIN (DOUBLED — vulnerable fave in 11-horse field) · Ceiling Box: Hard Circle (101, PP7), Hong Kong Phooey (97, PP3), Take A Stance (96, PP2), Raging Sea Captain (92, PP4)

Pick 4 · Laurel · Race 7 — Stormy Blues Stakes

NICHE (PP4) · 8/1 · Ceiling 107 · Standard $50

Strategies Firing

La Cosa Nostra: Ceiling leader (107 Beyer) at 8/1 with S6.

Beyer Ceiling Box: 107 ceiling is 7 points above the fave's 90.

Pace scenario: 4 pure E horses in a 12-horse sprint — nuclear. Speed annihilates itself in 5½ furlongs with this many bodies forward.

Favorite: Only For Now (S, 1/1, Beyer 90) — PROTECTED. Closer at even money, benefits from the pace collapse. But her 90 ceiling is 17 POINTS below our pick. The public is betting the closer angle — our horse is simply faster.

The pick: NICHE (PP4, 8/1, Beyer 107). The fastest horse in this race by a mile — literally 7 points of ceiling above the next horse and 17 above the fave. He's speed (E-type) in a pace duel, normally dangerous, but 107 is so far above this field that even in a speed duel he can separate on pure class. At 8/1 the public is asleep.

Sprint note: 5½-furlong race. Sprint Closer Penalty says don't bet P/S to win. NICHE is E-type — perfect for a sprint win bet.

Stake: $50 WIN (protected fave, standard La Cosa Nostra) · Ceiling Box: Niche (107, PP4), Just Philtored (100, PP6), Gerrards Cross (100, PP11), The Town Tempter (97, PP10)

FROSTED OVER (PP8) · 8/1 · Ceiling 98 · Standard $50

Strategies Firing

La Cosa Nostra: Ceiling leader (98 Beyer) at 8/1 with S4 (trainer 28%).

Beyer Ceiling Box: 13-horse field, massive exotic potential.

Pace scenario: Only 1 E horse + 3 E/P pressers. Moderate pace — not a meltdown, more of a tactical race.

Favorite: Ocean Atlantique (S, 2/1, Beyer 80) — PROTECTED. Closer at short price. But his ceiling (80) is 18 POINTS below our pick. The public is betting the name and the connections, not the talent.

The pick: FROSTED OVER (PP8, 8/1, Beyer 98). Trainer winning 28% at the meet (S4 fires — hot barn). Stalker type (P) who can sit mid-pack and close. 98 ceiling at 8/1 in a 13-horse field where the fave has an 80 ceiling. The math says this horse doesn't belong at 8/1.

Stake: $50 WIN (protected fave, standard La Cosa Nostra) · Ceiling Box: Frosted Over (98, PP8), Determinedly (97, PP11), Presider (94, PP9), Brigadier General (93, PP7)

VINDICATE CHA CHA (PP9) • 15/1 • Ceiling 105 • Standard $50

Strategies Firing

La Cosa Nostra: Ceiling leader (105 Beyer) at 15/1 with S6 (best last Beyer of 105!).

Beyer Ceiling Box: 105, 102, 100, 98 ceilings, all at value.

Pace scenario: Only 1 E horse (Vindicate Cha Cha herself, PP9) + 4 E/P pressers. She could potentially wire this if nobody contests her early.

Favorite: Great Venezuela (P, 9/5, Beyer 96) — PROTECTED. Stalker type. But 96 ceiling is 9 points below our pick's 105.

The pick: VINDICATE CHA CHA (PP9, 15/1, Beyer 105). This horse ran a 105 LAST TIME OUT — the best last Beyer in the field by 3 points. She's the lone E-type, meaning she could wire this without a pace duel. At 15/1 the public is completely wrong. She's the class of this field and nobody is betting her.

Sprint note: 5½-furlong sprint. She's E-type — ideal for a sprint win bet.

Stake: $50 WIN (protected fave, standard La Cosa Nostra) • Ceiling Box: Vindicate Cha Cha (105, PP9), Tiffany Gold (102, PP8), Tree C's Kai (100, PP4), Jokes Up (98, PP2)

DROP ME A DIME (PP5) • 15/1 • Ceiling 92 • DOUBLE $100

Strategies Firing

Beat the Vulnerable Favorite: Egyptian (E, 8/5) in a pace duel with 2E.

La Cosa Nostra: Ceiling leader (92 Beyer) at 15/1.

Pace scenario: Egyptian (E fave, PP1) and Drop Me A Dime (E, PP5) duel for the lead. Two E horses fighting for the front in a one-mile race.

Favorite: Egyptian (E, 8/5, Beyer 91) — VULNERABLE. E type in a pace duel. Our pick is also E type — this is a “which speed survives” play, and at 15/1 vs. 8/5 the value is massive if Drop Me A Dime has the class to clear.

The pick: DROP ME A DIME (PP5, 15/1, Beyer 92).

Win pick: LORD BERRIER (PP5, 12/1, Ceiling 99). P-type stalker who benefits from the pace duel. 99 ceiling ties for 2nd best in the field. Ran a 91 two back. At 12/1 the public is buried by his poor last (74) but his form two back says he's live.

Win pick: CELESTIAL EXPRESS (PP2, 10/1, Ceiling 95). Best ceiling in the field by 2 points. P-type stalker who can sit just behind Singalong Kayla and be first to kick past if she tires. At 10/1 the public doesn't respect the ceiling. Inner turf post helps.

6	Kuwaitya	9/2	E/P	92	104
7	Schilflied	20/1	P	88	104

Pace map: 1 E horse (Tahini PP4) + 2 E/P pressers. Tahini is near-lone speed.

Favorite: Can't Sleep (P, 5/2, Ceiling 99) — PROTECTED. Stalker type. But her 99 ceiling is 10 points below Tahini's 109. The public is betting the stalker angle, not the talent.

Win pick: TAHINI (PP4, 6/1, Ceiling 109). The fastest horse in this race — 109 ceiling, 103 LAST OUT. Lone E type who ran a 103 Beyer last start. At 6/1 the public is criminally underrating this horse. S6 fires (best last Beyer by 7 points).

Stake: $50 WIN (fave is protected, standard La Cosa Nostra) · Ceiling Box: Tahini (109, PP4), Imaboutago (106, PP3), Young Love (104, PP1), Kuwaitya (104, PP6), Can't Sleep (99, PP5)

9	Goldeneye	10/1	E/P	8	91
10	Poor Connection	15/1	E/P	85	109

Pace map: 0 E horses. 2 E/P types. This is a closers' race with virtually no speed. Whatever E/P type takes the lead dictates the tempo unchallenged.

Favorite: Gold Phoenix (S, 7/5, Ceiling 87) — VULNERABLE. Closer at very short price in a race with NO speed — closers have nothing to run into. His ceiling (87) is LOWER than our pick. DOUBLE.

Win pick: POOR CONNECTION (PP10, 15/1, Ceiling 109). 109 ceiling at 15/1 in a Grade 3. Highest ceiling by 7 points. E/P type in a race with no speed — he can DICTATE the tempo from the front and wire this. Classic wire-job setup.

Stake: $100 WIN (DOUBLED — vulnerable fave in 10-horse field) · Ceiling Box: Poor Connection (109, PP10), American Hope (102, PP4), Living Life (100, PP5), Rimprotector (96, PP7), Gold Phoenix (87, PP6)

Favorite: Kikuride (S, 7/2, Ceiling 98) — PROTECTED. Closer who benefits from the E-type duel ahead.

Win pick: MARS MAGIC (PP3, 8/1, Ceiling 101). Rising form (80-89-91 over last 3), P-type stalker who benefits from the E-type duel ahead. 101 ceiling at 8/1. Recent Life flag fires — improving each start.

Pace map: 1 E horse (Shamrock Glitter PP10) + 6 E/P pressers. SEVEN horses wanting forward position in a 6-furlong turf sprint with 12 runners. Chaos.

Favorite: King Stephen (S, 4/1, Ceiling 95) — PROTECTED (benefits from pace). But Sprint Closer Penalty says closers don't win 6f sprints. His 95 ceiling is 8th best in this 12-horse field. The public is dead wrong.

Win pick: PRIVATE GEM (PP6, 10/1, Ceiling 107). Stalker drawn in the middle of this 12-horse field. Sits behind 7 speed/pressers who cook each other, first to close when they're done. 107 ceiling at 10/1.
